

50% OF FOOD TODAY IS CONSUMED OUT OF THE HOME¹...
HOW ARE YOU GOING TO THRIVE IN THIS NEW CRISIS?

TAKEOUT - DRIVE THRU - DELIVERY

Did you know most likely demographic to dine-in, is over 55?²

Would it surprise you that this same demographic has a reputation for brand loyalty that younger generations don't?

Unfortunately, this same demographic is least likely to order via mobile and have food delivered.³

So how do you keep this less technological, more loyal demographic engaged in these times of forced Takeout and Delivery?

1 PUSH TAKEOUT

Make it as streamlined as possible for customers to grab food from your restaurant!

2 MARKET IT

Remind local customers about your services with social media, direct mail or tele sales

3 CORRECT MESSAGING

Consider creating a cheat-sheet for your personnel and order takers to reference when answering the phone. Some things to consider including on that Q & A page:

- Be sure to mention take-out ordering (or a delivery service) is available.
- Reassure them they can get the food with minimal personal interaction
 - Consider setting up a counter where paid-on-the-phone orders can be picked up without interacting with anybody
 - Use single-use pens for signing checks, where the guest takes it with them
 - Offer Curb Side instead of, or in addition to, Takeout
 - Get creative, employee puts it on the passenger seat to maintain 6 feet of social distancing).
- Mention your restaurant's sanitation policy- all employees are required to wash their hands every 30 minutes... food handlers all wear gloves... sick workers are required to stay home for at least 2 weeks... etc.

Lastly, don't forget the benefits of positioning ice cream offerings to recapture some of the revenue you may be losing from lost liquor, soda and coffee sales to dine-in guests.

Do you picture Ice Cream when you think of food safe takeout or delivery options?
